

Atharav Joshi

filmmaker | photographer

Introduction

I'm Atharva Shripad Joshi, a beginner filmmaker and content creator based in Pune. I create short films, edit videos, and design visuals using professional tools and basic mobile equipment.

This portfolio highlights my learning journey and growing skills as I continue exploring the world of filmmaking and visual storytelling.

All photos here are shot in RAW using a mobile phone and edited in Lightroom Classic. This practice has improved my understanding of light, composition, and color grading which directly supports my filmmaking journey.
